ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Rule. Shri M.D. Pandya waives service of the rule on behalf of the respondent.

2. The learned counsel for the parties are in agreement that this Special Civil Application may be disposed of in the terms that the petitioner is free to re-represent the Appellate-Committee of the respondent-board for further reduction of the demand as per the revised supplementary bill pursuant to the order dated 10th March, 1997 by producing further documents in support of claim to reduction. If such a prayer is made, the appellate committee has to consider the same if made within one month thereof without being influenced by its earlier decision. If the Appellate-Committee is satisfied that the petitioner is entitled to any further relief, if any found due, it shall grant such relief. Accordingly, in terms aforesaid, this Special Civil Application and Rule stand disposed of with no order as to costs.
